Dear Parent/Guardian of High School Junior or Senior:

Under the federal No Child Left Behind Act, school districts are required to provide the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of high school juniors and seniors (i.e., 17 years and older) to the United States Armed Forces Recruiting Agencies, and other authorized agencies, as requested. However, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and the No Child Left Behind Act mandate that parents be offered an option to withhold the release of this information each year.

If you wish to withhold the release of your child's name, address and telephone number, you must complete the form below and return it to the school. The request to withhold the student information is applicable only to the current school year. According to federal law, this form must be completed each school year.
